Print Test

1. ____% of divorced mothers have custody of their children.

   40
   60
   80
   90

2. In divorce women remarry more quickly than men.

   True
   False

3. New evidence indicates that when children have a hard time, boys and girls suffer equally; they just differ in how they suffer.

   True
   False

4. most marriages follow a prescribed pattern, which is not one of them?

   disillusionment
dissatisfaction
deciding to divorce
acceptance
they are all correct

5. Children often believe they have caused the conflict between their parents.

   True
   False

6. ____% divorced mothers receive no child support.
7. During a divorce school performance is not impaired.

   True
   False

8. Children will often act out their own anger and force parents to interact.

   negatively positively negatively or positively
   not here

9. Regression in terms of sleeping, toilet training or eating; slowing down in the mastery of new skills can be caused by a divorce.

   True
   False

10. _______ are more externally symptomatic than _________, they act out their anger, frustration and hurt more

    parents-girls
    girls-boys
    parents-boys
    boys-girls

11. Which is not a symptom of divorce in children?

    Pervasive sadness
    Afraid of their worst fears Reconciliation fantasies
    No loyalty conflicts

12. Chronic fatigue is not a symptom of children facing divorce.

    True
    False

13. Children facing divorce can have an onset of mature behaviors.

    True
14. Numerous kids can manage divorce or separation in a sensibly productive way on account of their innate ________.

love
behaviors strength
solitude

15. Other Conditions refers to________?

other mental problems
other conditions or problems
other emotional problems
not here

16. Divorce or separation have many manifestations.

True
False

17. What is DSM 5 does not attempt to diagnose?

psychological testing
child affected by parental relationship distress parent-child relational problem child psychological abuse

18. Intense emotional reactions (such as, crying, anger, begging) associated with parents separation or divorce is a?

short term goal
long term goal
strategy
not here

19. Stabilize and increase positive mood is a short term goal.

True
False

20. Strategies or interventions are the steps required to help complete only short-term goals.

True
False