COURSES ARTICLE - THERAPYTOOLS.US

Print Test

1. The impulse control disorders are a loosely grouped set of conditions that have in common that they all centrally feature behavior that is acted out in an uncontrolled, and impulsive manner that often has self-destructive consequences.

   True
   False

2. Impulse control disorders do not include?

   eating disorders
   alcohol, drugs abuse depression
   paraphilias sexual fantasies

3. Intermittent Explosive Disorder (characterized by irresistible urges to steal various items from stores and homes)

   True
   False

4. ____ behavioral stages characterize impulsivity.

   4
   5
   6
   7

5. Pathological Gambling (characterized by compulsive, uncontrollable gambling)

   True
   False

6. What impulse disorder is characterized by impulsive and repetitive urges to deliberately start fires?
Compulsive shopping
Kleptomania
Sexual compulsion
Pyromania

7. Kleptomania is characterized by strong urge to go shopping.

True
False

8. Kleptomania is also thought to be the cause of ____% of annual shoplifting.

3
6
8
Not Here

9. The limbic system is linked to planning functions.

True
False

10. Hormones associated with violence and aggression, such as __________, also play a role in the disorders

epinephrine serotonin testosterone dopamine

11. Studies have revealed that family members of people with impulse control disorders have a higher rate of addiction and mood disorders than families with no history of impulse disorders.

True
False

12. Which is not a factor leading up to the onset of an impulse control disorder?

Genetic Physical Environmental
All are correct

13. Children are raised in families where violence, verbal abuse, emotional abuse, physical abuse, and explosive emotional reactions to certain situations are prevalent, are not at a higher or lower risk for developing some type of impulse control disorder.
14. Which is not a risk factor for impulse disorders?

female young history of abuse
family history of mental illness

15. Some health professionals consider impulse control disorders subgroups of other conditions.

True
False

16. Selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs) are?

PSTD medication
seizure medication
anxiety medications
antidepressant medications

17. Medications are not recommended for individuals with a history of substance abuse.

True
False

18. What kind of symptom is obsessive thoughts patterns?

Cognitive symptoms
Psychosocial symptoms
Physical symptoms
Behavioral symptoms

19. A history or pattern of thinking before acting is an impulse disorder symptoms.

True
False

20. Identify all impulsive behaviors and its antecedents, mediators, and consequences is a?

long Term Goal
short term goal
behavioral defintion
intervention