COURSES ARTICLE - THERAPYTOOLS.US

Print Test

1. Develop a plan for restitution for illegal activity is a short term goal.
   True
   False

2. Develop a plan for restitution for illegal activity is a short term goal.
   True
   False

3. Understand the importance of honesty in building trust in others and esteem for one self is a short term goal.
   True
   False

4. Agree to attend class to earn new skills to successfully seek employment is a short term goal.
   True
   False

5. Identify and list different manners to meet life needs (such as, social, financial) without resorting to illegal activities is a long term goal.
   True
   False

6. Accept and responsibility and respond to the mandates of court is a long term goal.
   True
   False

7. Show how chemical dependence has contributed to legal problems and help patient accept the need for recovery is a short term goal.

True
False

8. Agree to attend an anger control group is a short term goal.

True
False

9. Learn positive self talk that encourages positive behavior is a long term goal.

True
False

10. Identify and list cognitive distortions that reinforce antisocial behavior is a long term goal.

True
False

11. Identify and list the causes for the negative emotional state that has contributed to illegal actions is a short term goal.

True
False

12. Acknowledge responsibility for decisions and actions that have led to legal problems, and develop higher ethical standards to govern behavior is a long term goal.

True
False

13. Explore any behaviors that have led to current involvement with the court system is a long term goal.

True
False

14. Refer to legal counsel and meet to make plans for resolving legal conflicts is a short term goal.

True
False

15. Keep regular contact with court officers to meet all legal sentencing requirements is a short term goal.
16. Explore the role drug or alcohol abuse has played in legal problems is a short term goal.

17. Internalize the need to change values, thoughts, feelings and behavior is a long term goal.

18. Lean to be a responsible citizen in good standing within the community is a short term goal.

19. Accept uncontrollable actions of the court is a short term goal.

20. Express a desire and commitment to remain abstinent is a long term goal.